TESTIMONIALS.

From Mr. JOHN J. MAHON, Capilla del Señor, June 29, 1881.—The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of curing scab in sheep, I have seen many specifics used, and I consider Gilliard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.

From MR. JAMES M. THOMAS, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881.—Having given a good trial to Gilliard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.

From Mr. Wm. Petty, Estancia Caro, Colonia, Sept, 20, 1881—

"I feel great pleasure in informing you that the sheep dip supplied by you to me under the name of Gillard's Sheep Dip has had surprising results on my English long-woolled rams; it has kept them entirely free from scab after only twice using it, although those rams have been constantly running in a flock of scabby sheep. I intend for the first time to give it a trial with the whole of my English breed of sheep as soon as I have them shorn, as I feel satisfied I shall with that did keep scab out of the flock."

From Messrs. Patrick Mahon, junr., Ciriaco Morales, and James Murray, Capilla del Señor, Sept. 18, 1881—

"It gives us great pleasure to inform you that, after giving a good trial to Gillard's non-poisonous sheep dip, we can pronounce it to be the best specific we have used as yet, and we are fully determined for the future to use no other remedy."

Berlin 20.

Owing to a rapid change in temperature Emperor William has caught a bad cold and is seriously ill; still the doctors of H.M. are of opinion that there is not the least fear of danger, as the sickness presents no abnormal character.

ARGENTINES AND ITALIANS.

Our talented Rosario correspondent has manfully dipped into the deep waters of ethnology, bearding the Moors, patting the Italians on the back and convincing us that the latter owe all their fine qualities to the fact that they are Germans, and that they are the coming race of the Argentine Republic.

In reference to the gratuitous onslaught on the memory of the Moors, we refer our correspondent to Gen. Sarmiento, who may inform him that if the Arabs constituted and yet constitute, an ignorant and uncivilized race on the desert and sandy plains of the north of Africa and of the south of Asia, they managed to arrive at an enviable state of civilization both in Asia and in Spain when Europeans were yet, what may be termed, semi-barbarians. This goes to show that the status of a race and of a nation greatly depends upon the quality of the soil, as regards the accumulation of wealth, and of the climate as regards the development of energy. If the Moors contrived to get ahead of the Europeans in Spain, in arts, literature, science and in the amenities of refined living, it is an unsettled problem what they might have effected in the more northern part of Europe, had not Charles Martel defeated them at Tours. In Spain they were superior to the Iberians and to the Goths, but thrown back on the coast of Africa, and driven out of Syria into Arabia, they naturally, as would have been the case with any other race, relapsed into their present barbarous state. That the Arab civilization in Europe would have been different to the present Christian one, there is no doubt. As Jouffroy terms it, there are two different planetary systems. Unhappily we cannot form a judgment of the advantages of the Arab systems, since there prepotency fell into the hands of the Turks, who are as different from the Arabs as they are from the Christians.

On the other hand these River Plate countries were not founded on pure Castillian, or Spanish-Moorish, or Spanish-Gothic elements. The foundations of the River Plate are Basque: the Irales, Garays, Ayolas, Edyeneches, Iriondos, in fact all those names in 'ondo', 'undo', 'ag', 'eche,' 'erria,' &c, are Basque. And if the characteristics of their descendants have changed, the cause must be sought in the climate, the food and the surroundings. Furthermore, the cross with the Indian has produced a splendid type of an individual—the 'gaucho'—whose energy and intellectual qualities have been driven into an abnormal groove by our European civilization and pastoral pursuits. As regards intelligence and manhood, physical advantages and energy, he is on a par with the genecal level of other races, and, indeed, surpasses many through a conviction of his own individual worth and liberty. So much for the Gaucho's status of civilization as regards intelligence. Instruction will make an educated man out of him, a lawyer, an escribado, an auctioneer, a military genius, nay, even a legislator, but unfortunately learning will not make him a hard-working, industrious individual as the ignorant Italian, who lands on the Paseo Julio, with no other patrimony than a good constitution and an iron will to struggle for life, whether as boot-black, or as a fiddler. The Italian is mainly a producing agent, whilst the gaucho is a consumer. The Republic needs the working agent—for the present there is quite enough civilization in the country, and there is a feeling of 'jam satis' in this respect, since we invariably couple civilization with very much intellectual and little manual or physical labor.

With respect to the future ethnological status of the Republic, relying on the assertion of our Rosario correspondent that the Italian is the emigrant suited for this country, we must see whether we or the Argentine will disappear. Up to the present the climate, the soil, and local influences assimilate the Italians, and their sons are no longer Italians. If the current of immigration continues in the present ratio, the assimilation will be gradual and certain, but not so, if the country were overwhelmed with same: the Argentines would be incorporated and the face of affairs completely changed; the language and turn of mind would be entirely Italian. The immense influence at present exercised by the Italian is beyond doubt, but the language of the country remains Spanish; the manners and the special character of the amalgamation of both the foreign and native elements remain notably Argentine, and probably will ever continue so. The best medical men of Buenos Aires have remarked that the children of an Italian father and Argentine mother excel often in intellectual powers, and this observation is general, so that there need be no anxiety for the inteligence of the future generations. The descendants of the Italian emigrant inherit somewhat the working powers of their parents, and they will gradually absorb both the Indian and Gaucho: being a more vigorous element the weaker must necessary give way. The change will be far better, and Argentines could not wish for stauncher countrymen than the Italians descendants, who with a sterling love of the country, acquire the true Argentine characteristics, so much so that one cannot distinguish them from the pure 'criollo.'

Emigration from the Northern parts of Europe cannot compete with the Italians. Disparity of creeds, of customs and of languages incapacitates the progress of any great emigration from Northern Europe. Even the Frenchmen would have to give way. Partial emigration from those parts will, no doubt, thrive, but studying the matter from a broad point of view, we see that affairs will be much changed in the next 25 years. There will be less room for individual action, and the present facilities for agricultural independence, will no longer exist. If instead of Italians the emigrants were from Great Britain or Germany, affairs would be widely different and the reverse of what is taking place at present with the general assimilation of the Italian. The Northern races would radicate in the land their traditions, their creeds and their manners, and Argentines would be forced to give way before increasing numbers, especially as the sons of Northern emigrants bear the stamp of their fathers and maintain same at least a generation longer than the descendants of Italians. As regards Great Britain, the only British colony that has thrived is the Chubut, and the progress of same is due to the Celtic qualities of the colonists, but where is the English Fraile Muerto colony, the Henley colony? Gone, because of the innumerable obstacles around and lack of sociability between Greek and Trojan.

The Italians are the coming race in the country, losing at the same time their traditional characteristics. The future legislators will all bear names ending in 'ini,' but they will be as Argentine as the present 'criollos.' There must naturally be some change, and that change will be more of an industrial kind than any other. There is nowhere to be found a more intelligent race than the Argentines, and we evidence the truth of the assertion by daily experiences, but as the country lacks inhabitants to develop all its physical advantages, it necessarily lacks intelligent labor, and the Italian is destined to assume that part. Whether the excellence of the Italians is due to Gothic or German precedents, we really do not know. Huns, Goths, Longobards, Greeks, Arabs, Normans and Gauls, all may claim some corpuscules in their blood, but the qualities of the Italian are mainly Roman, and the same that civilized the world. The Italian is thrifty and industrious, and with an improved morality there is no better element wherewith to build up the future of the country, and give a uniform character to the population.

THE IRISH ORPHANAGE.

No institution in this city has grown more rapidly than the Irish Orphanage in Calle Rio Bamba, under the charge of the Nuns of the Sacred Heart, who are little more than a year amongst us. Within that short period close on one hundred English-speaking orphans have been housed, clothed, instructed and cared at this most deserving of all our institutions; little children have been brought in from the camp homeless, fatherless and mere waifs, to find at the Irish Orphanage shelter, protection and instruction. Our wealthy countrymen in the camp, who so liberally support this establishment, may well feel proud of their work, and if they enjoy a prosperity unexampled in other lands, it is that Providence blesses their homes and rains on them the choicest of earthly blessings in recompense for their unmeasured charities to this Orphanage.

The institution costs about $18,000 m|c per month to support at its present number, but it is probable that next year the orphans will number many more than at present, as every day the good Rev Mother, Madame Fitzgerald, has fresh applications for admission either from town or camp. Many of the children, after a year's instruction, have been placed by the Rev. Mother with some of the principal families of the city, and all who have been taken from the Orphanage have given the greates satisfaction.

There are 80 orphans in the establishment now, and, on the part of the Rev. Mother, we have to return special thanks to those kind foreign merchants who have so thoughtfully sent her samples and remnants of goods, which for the last 12 months have kept the children not only employed but clothed. Should these lines meet the eyes of any of our city merchants who may have a few samples lying over in their stores, we trust they will favour the Orphanage with whatever they can reasonably share for these poor children.

The sight at the Irish Convent yesterday morning was not one easily to be forgotten. About 130 small children made their first communion. The little chapel was decorated and the Archbishop officiated. The children from the Orphanage, from the day poor school and from the high school, were all dressed in white, and so admirable were the Rev. Mother's arrangements, that the children from the different schools did not mix—each school had its department. The chapel was thronged, and chairs were put inside the altar rails to accommodate those gentlemen who are proud to claim the honour of being patrons of this institution.

The sight of the orphans, all dressed in uniform with white veils and marshalled under Madame Burke, 80 little children wanting for nothing and brought up under the very best instruction, gave one hope that there is a future for the Irish colony in the Plate. We should like to have had every sheepfarmer in Buenos Ayres beside us in the convent yard, reviewing that bright little band of juvenile innocence, and of faith, hope and charity.

The Archbishop, in a beautifully-impressive discourse, addressed the children, and at ten o'clock the ceremony concluded.

The Irish Orphanage in this city is the greenest spot in the memory of our countrymen. It has, under the very able management of Madame Fitzgerald, risen to its present usefulness.

It holds under its blessed roof children of English, Scotch, American and German parents; there is bread and food for all, and long may it flourish in the land, the monument of our charity, our principles and our worth.

We may add, that in the day school over 130 children are taught free of charge, and these little ones are chiefly of Italian parents.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The R.M.S. Trent entered yesterday, after a fine run out (steaming time) of 22 days. We feel happy in welcoming Mr Thomas Drysdale, Mr T Gibson, Mr Bankier, Mr Terence Moore, Mr F Darbyshire and other friends and subscribers who have arrived in her. The news from Lisbon is to 29th ult. Water ran short in New York, and the watering of the streets had to be stopped, Mississippi overflowed and did immense damage. Arrests still going on in Ireland. Baron James Rothschild of Paris dead.

Sunday was roaring hot, nevertheless everybody was out of doors. The 'Bois' was well attended: so was the Admiral Brown, and the Politeama, and the Florida Gardens, and the Opera House &c. The first day of summer is still a month off, yet the heat is inconvenient, and our weather prophets (we have half a dozen on our half-pay list) say that the summer of 1881-1882 will be the hottest ever known in these regions.

There was great anxiety expressed yesterday for further news from Ireland. Havas is behind hand in the matter.

The will of the late Don Felix Frias shows that his fortune was 4½ millions m|c. It was made and signed here by him a few days before he sailed for Europe. The testator's two sisters are the heirs; he leaves 1½ million to churches and charities.

The grand Masonic funeral service for the late President Garfield came off on Sunday at the Temple in Calle Cangallo. The hall was draped in black, and on each side of the catafalque were the incriptions, 'James A. Garfield' 'Lloremosle.' The temple was crowded: fully 1000 people were present. Dr Alem made a most magnificent speech which lasted an hour. A Montevideo Brother followed him, and spoke very well. The orchestra was magnificent. After the funeral service there was a concert, of which Mrs Rocca was the queen. This lady is as talented as she is beautiful: her voice is superb and method of singing faultless.

The following are very interesting figures for those who never save a penny, or have nothing to save from:—'The whole amount of money in savings banks in the U. States is $881,855,898, and the deposits in all banks amount to $2,510,000,000.

The sensation in Montevideo now is not Latorre, or Santos, or anybody else, but the 'reincorporation (this is just the right word) of Banda Oriental with the Argentine Republic. The Democracia publishes a letter from this city giving some highly interesting particulars on this subject. It would be a grand thing for Banda Oriental, but this country would not gain much by it.

Governor Roche will start for his trip to the South on the 25th. A party of friends will accompany H. E.

There was a funny scene in Calle Piedad, Montevideo, the other day, and the practical joker who got it up had a narrow escape of paying for it with broken bones; He stooped down in the street, with anxious face, and began to turn up the dust, as it searching for a diamond or some other valuable, worth at least £1,000. To the enquiries of kind passers-by, he only answered with Ohs! and Ahs! continuing his frantic search. Soon there were three or four, then a dozen, then two dozen people helping the unfortunate fellow in his quest, while a crowd of several hundred people gathered round looking on and asking 'what's up'. When the street was almost completely blocked up, and only a narrow way of escape left round the edge of the crowd, the fellow slipped through it shouting 'I lost nothing! You area pack of asses!' and off he went like a hare. A yell that shook the street burst from the 'sold' crowd, and a shower of sticks, stones, bricks, dirt and every conceivable missile followed the fugitive, while a dozen indignant citizens sprang after him. After a sharp run, the quarry took refuge in a 'tambo' where the police saved him from instant 'Lynchatiou'. We're glad he escaped: he is evidently a philosopher who knows human nature thoroughly. Perhaps it was Brander himself. Nothing more likely.

The manufacture of cigarettes by hand, by which so many industrious families earn a scanty subsistence in this city, has received a severe blow on the head from Mr Daumas, the eminent French tabaccionist, who has just imported three machines that will turn out 12,000 cigarettes each daily. These wonderful machines cut the paper, roll the cigarette, close it, in fact do everything but pack it or smoke it.

There was a fair crowd on the Paseo Julio on Sunday to witness the Marina Club rowing matches. On the old mole there was a 'toldo' put up for the Club's visitors, but these were so numerous that the awning was not half large enough, and many had the crowns of their hats burned out by the fierce heat of the sun. The band of the 7th of the Line was in attendance and struck up lively airs as each winning boat passed the post. Most of the events were well contested, but the programme was entirely too long for a hot summer's day, and it was 7½ p.m. when the last race was over. By this time the hungry spectators had dwindled to a score, and the distribution of prizes was necessarily a hurried proceeding. On the whole, however, the day was a success and showed that La Marina is keeping well to the fore.

What's to be done with the begging impostors now swarming in the streets? We hope Governor Roach will send every man, woman and child of them to his new Penitentiary in Azul. Never before were our streets disgraced by such swarms of repulsive beggars.

Another Juegos Florales business at Mercedes has been arranged for the 1st prox. We see several distinguished literary lights amongst the competitors.

The Admiral Brown had another vast concourse of visitors on Sunday. They all speak in the highest terms of the courtesy of the officers. Explaining the ins and outs of a man of war to landlubbers is a very trying process for sailors, but they get through it splendidly when there are lots of pretty girls amongst the visitors, as there were on Sunday.

Thales! Water! is the cry on the Flores Road, and a Watering League is spoken of. Mr Lamas is invoked daily in half a dozen languages, from English to modern Greek, to get watering carts before the inhabitants of the Road are laid in an early grave, cut off in their prime, choked, done for, by Dust. The Sahara is a nice enjoyable place compared with the Flores Road.

On Saturday night a Western Railway engine went smack into an open tramcar of the Lacroze line and made matchwood of three of its seats. Fortunately there was nobody killed. The Lacroze tram cars evidently consider the Western Railway engines as hereditary foes, as they are always running foul of the latter and invariably come off second best.

Mr. Cotillon and his three little sons have arrived from France. These four gentlemen are somewhat distinguished aeronauts, and they are to manage the captive baloon at the Continental Exhibition. One of their feats is to ascend to a good height, when the father launches his three children from the balloon, attached to parachutes. We should prefer seeing the cotillon danced on 'terra firma,' and the three little Cotillons would probably rather dance it there than 'dans l'air.' The public do not like seeing children or women exposed to these dreadful risks. If men like to imperil their own lives they can, although their moral right to do so is very doubtful. Parachutes have ever been a fruitful source of fatal accidents since they were first invented.

They dont seem to care much in Tucuman about the recent storm and the destruction of the Continental Exhibition. The local paper, the Razon devotes three lines to the catastrophe, announcing that the smash took place on the 8th, that about 8 millions of paper dollars were lost by the 'temporal,' and that the particulars are quite too awfully profuse for its columns. The Razon 'tiene razon.' Profuseness is the great defect of the Buenos Aires press. The soul of wit, brevity, is ignored by it.

The Custom House was entered by burglars on Sunday night and a quantity of calico, cashmeres, hats, boots, cigars, stockings, &c., to the tune of 6,000 patacons, carried off. The stolen goods belonged to Messrs Blagden, Bernasconi, Tornquist, Mallmann, Bates, Stokes and others A boatman and several peons have been arrested.

THE OPERA HOUSE

La Boccomini 'l'enfant gâtée' of the Porteño public, has only just left us; her youth and beauty made an impression on more than one of the frequenters of this theatre, and her musical voice was compared to a row of pearls let loose into a highly polished crystal tumbler.

However, now we have an old favorite here again—Adelaide Tessero, in all probability the most perfect actress ever seen in this country, an actress who undoubtedly feels the parts she delineates for the time being, who has perfect command of the stage and the audience, one who affords you the most intellectual entertainment in the country, and on leaving the theatre you cannot fail to remember with pleasure how your feelings have been stirred with such beautiful acting. This company on the whole is more complete than the former one, and should the heat not be intense, no doubt they will meet with the support they deserve.

On Saturday, the 19th inst. the piece selected was Sardon's well-known comedy Divorziamo, by no means a favorite one of the native families, still the house was pretty well attended. La Tessero was warmly received and presented with two elegant bouquets. The part of Cipriano's husband was admirably performed by Cavalieri L Biagi, and that of Ademaro by Sr Bozzo, whose comical situation elicited roars of laughter.

On Sunday the grand drama of Elizabeth, written by Giacometti, was given, but the heat was too oppressive for a five act drama. In the course of a few days, after seeing this charming company again, public attention will be invited to their attractive entertainment by.

BAD POSTAGE STAMPS.

To the Editor of the Standard.
November 21, 1881.

Mr. Editor,

I sent a letter in June last to the Cape of Good Hope, for which I paid postage twenty-eight centavos. I have just received an answer to same, wherein the following passage occurs:—

"You wish to know if we had to pay postage on your letter. We had. The stamps had either been taken off or been rubbed off: we could see plainly where they had been."

This must have occurred through bad gum, of which so many complaints have lately been made. Is there no remedy?

Yours truly,

Fair Play.

The 'azzione' market surprised every one to-day, and prices that shut hard on Saturday at 105½ were down to-day lower than they have touched since last July, closing for cash at 102.

The bears brought 4,000 shares cash, which they flung on the market, and it really points to its dryness the fact that with so much sold cash prices did not run down still lower. Many consider to-day the supreme effort of the bears, and that the shares sold cash have been already sold for the end of the month. It is impossible to form any judgment; those, however, who have the ready money to buy cash and take up the stock will probably in the long run come out best, as perhaps just as strong a speculation as now exists for the fall will before the end of the month set in for a rise. Whatever may be the upshot it is clear that the liquidation this month will eclipse all the other months of the year, and people who stand back expect that before the 30th the shares will be fair short.

Gold nothing worth reporting doing; a few small sales amounting altogether to 47,200 pats at 25.10. But the Provincial Bank has decided to give paper for gold at the rate of 25 m|c, and on Saturday night at the President's reception the General said that on Dec. 1st the price of gold would be fixed at par.

Cedulas opened for the week dull at 98½, and not much doing. Many think that before the end of the month prices will stiffen.

National Bank Shares opened with a roar, and the greatest cash day's business in the stock ever known was transacted to-day. One or two well known brokers sold from the opening to closing of the ring, and a leading broker who bought freely last week was one of the heaviest sellers to-day. The stock bewilders the market, but it is evident that no combination for purchase has yet been formed, and the market is left to outsiders; still the stock to-day as it were defended itself and did not give under, as the bears hoped; prices for cash opened at 103½ and closed at 102. For end of month 6,750 shares sold, which is but a small day's business, opening at 105, and closing on its knees at 103. For Dec. prices also tumbled, opening at 106 and closing at 104½, and at 102 deliverable.

It was rumoured that to-day the Deputies will pass the bill to pay the Bank 450,000 indemnity; but the market is so completely in the hands of the bears that the indemnity has no effect on the stock.

The R.M.S. Trent entered Montevideo yesterday, and at 7 a.m a small steamer left the mole with a party of friends to welcome Mr Thomas Drysdale back.

Mr McNally, who has arrived in Patagonia from New York, was enveloped in friends; he says that the present business prosperity in the United States is something wondrous, and they expect to mark this year 400,000 immigrant arrivals.

Messrs Woodgate Bros. post the steamer Shamrock to load for Antwerp, see notice. Mr C F Woodgate will be out in the Buenos Ayrean.

Mr James Getting left to-day for Montevideo, and at the wool market this morning several well-known buyers put in a first appearance.

Two of our private banks took about 2 millions francs exchange to-day at 5.29 and 5.30, all drawn; for wool purchases; bills on London offering at 50d gold. and 49¼paper, few takers.

The most important business spoken of on 'Change was the sale of 1½ league of estancia land for 10 square leagues on the Sauce Corte. We reserve particulars for to-morrow; the 1½ league is the half of one of the best known estancias in the South.

Capt. Hart Dyke, Com. of the steamer Trent, and Mr May, superintendant R.M., Mr Glover of Rosario, and Mr Spangenberg of Gualeguaychu were all welcomed on Change, also Mr W. Wilson, who has arrived down from his estancia Banda Oriental; the Bolsa was crowded with returned friends.

Another of new line of Italian steamers, the 'Iniziativa' has arrived at Montevideo, she will be up to-morrow to Mr Christophersen and will load for Antwerp. If she would load Nat. Bank Shares for London, we could promise Mr Christophersen good freight, primage and valuable cargo.

Mr A Christophersen left to-day for Rosario. The pioneer steamer Ville de Rosario left this morning for that port to load in river and here for Havre.

Prices kept up firm during the last days, as some new buyers appeared for middling inferior descriptions, which had been very dull. Choice lots in brisk demand, the principal lots sold were—

To-day there were few sales effected and about 45,000 ar remained unsold. A fall is expected towards the end of the week.

At afterhours the Bank Share market ruled very demoralized, about 2000 shares sold, closing a shade firmer.

The meeting of the Special Bolsa Committee was held to-day, it is generally said that the site most probably to be bought is that of the Nat. Bank.

A private letter from London says:—
I have been in the city. There is absolutely nothing. Money quiet for the present and New York exchange easy, and the liquidations in Paris, which caused some anxiety, as both in Paris and Vienna the gambling has been heavy, has passed over s n 'novedad'. The only news or gossip I picked up I cannot allude to in print. I hear that the brokers are stuck with some shares and cannot get rid of them. I hear also that Mr Yaniz, of the Argentine Consulate, has got the sack for writing in the Times against the interest of his Government in regard to tenders for the 6 per cent loan. It must be true, because Don Alfredo Lumb, the Vice-Consul, is now in charge of the Consulate General and signs. Mr Yaniz is not there.

The following late financial news from Paris may interest this market:—

"Pamphlets to prove that the present prices of certain shares are too low are the latest novelty in financial literature. One, entitled 'Bank of France Shares at f.3,000', was recently issued; it is now followed by 'Lombards at f.500, with a table to show that the opening of the Arlberg line will ensure the price of f.1,000 and a dividend of f.40'. It need scarcely be said that neither the Bank of France nor the Lombard Co. are responsible for these publications.

"The Banque Européenne (M Philipparts) has been merged in the Comptoir Industriel de France et des Colonies, a company of recent creation, with the object of continuing the affairs of the Européenne under a new name. The capital of the new company was only two millions, in 400,000 shares of f.50, one-fourth paid; it is now raised to 50 millions, by the issue of 48,000 new shares fully paid, given in exchange for the assets of the Banque Europeenne. The directors of the Comptoir Industriel are almost the same as the former Board of the Banque Europeenne".

We are indebted to the affable purser of the R.M.S. Trent, Mr. J. Heseman, for the following particulars of her voyage:—

The Trent arrived here this morning at 5 o'clock. The passage from Southampton has been made in 27½ days, which, after deducting the time spent in the eight ports of call, (viz 5 days, 8 hours) leaves a steaming time of 22 days, 4 hours.

The following financial advices from Paris may interest the market here:—

"The Paris financial market has for some time, and especially during the last few days, been in a state of excitement which it is impossible to pass over in silence. The cause and object of this excitement is a financial company which I hear has occasioned as much agitation among its partisans as among its equally numerous adversaries. The Union Generale, the company in question, was created under the influence of the singular idea of gathering together in a financial scheme the Catholic forces which neglected to gather together in the political arena. The company was created at a capital of f.25,000,000, of which a quarter—viz., 6,250,000, was paid up The idea was fruitful; not only were the shares speedily taken up, but a special 'clientele grouped round the new bank. The deposits confided to it grew so rapidly that scarcely a year later the company, in order to afford a guarantee for the abundance of its deposits, had to raise its capital to f.50,000,000. I do not wish to hurt its feelings, but the general opinion was that it would follow the example of other ventures. However, it did not justify these apprehensions. The men who were then at the head of the concern, overwhelmed with deposits, did not know, it seems, how to turn them to account, and allowed them to remain idle. It was then that the transformation of the company took place which has resulted in apparently concentrating round it all the ardour of the French market. A French engineer, who had long been engaged in managing Austrian railways, M Pontoux, was placed at its head, and a financier M Feder, was placed at his side, whose conceptions and energy were much extolled. Both knew Austria and the adjoining countries thoroughly and were convinced that a vast field was open there for French gold. The customers of the bank had increased. It had all the necessary resources for undertaking the fertilization of the regions in question, and it set to work with astonishing energy. The Austrian Landerbank was created, with a capital of f.100,000,000, and f.50,000,000 in specie was sent from Paris to Vienna. Its tender carried off the Servian railways. It created the Hungarian Lander, bank, and undertook in Austria, Hungary and Bohemia railways, mines, iron foundries in fact, all that can give life to a country languishing for want of capital. The Union Générale, in the midst of all these creations, became the centre of prodigious cosmopolitan activity. It was said, I know not rightly or wrongly, that formidable a coalition with vast funds was formed to work its ruin; but it had powerful and devoted friends, and whether the rumour of such a coalition was false or true the shares of the company have attained a price that may be regarded as an unprecedented exaggeration. To the attacks of its antagonists it replies by provocations. A few days ago it announced an extraordinary meeting of the shareholders for the 5th prox., to vote a fresh increase of the capital by 50,000,000f. At the same time the Landerbank is authorized to raise its capital from 100,000,000f. to 200,000,000f., and thus in less than three years and a half this company, which on the 31st of December, 1878, possessed a paid-up capital of only 6,250,000f., and a deposit of 800,000f., will have its capital raised to 150,000,000f., while the deposits, at a fixed rate, confided to it reach 100,000,000f. Along with the bank is has created it will shortly dispose of a capital of £20,000,000 sterling. An idea of the speculation fever this company is the centre of may be gathered from the fact that at to-day's Bourse, the shares, on which only 125f. have been paid up, reached the fantastic price of 2,150f., thus amounting to a premium of 1,830 per cent. I do not know what are the justifications for such a premium. It is said that those who are at the head of the bank are sorry to see it so high, and truly a man must possess a blind passion for gambling to have anything to do with such premiums. Be that as it may, the sight is curious enough to be pointed out, and people are interested to see what will be the end of one of the most trying financial battles which has been waged for a long time in the stock markets of Europe."

The following late news about the Antwerp produce market, from Messrs Bunge & Co. of that city, under date Oct. 20th, 1881, per str. Patagonia is important:—

Wool—
The market has continued quite steady both in tone and character, and at an advance of about 5 centimes on the prices current at our last public sales buyers have taken within the last fortnight the respectable quantity of about 8,000 bales. Our next public auctions will probably open on the 3rd proximo, and the recent large sales by private contract having considerably reduced our stock, it is generally expected that the quantity to be brought forward on this occasion will not exceed about 20,000 bales, and that the present standard of prices, say fr.155 f.r B. Aires average primera rendering 30 o|o will not undergo any alteration.

Our statistical position is now the following:

	Bales.	Bales.
Stock on 6th Oct.	—	28,267
Arrivals from Buenos Aires	1,000
Do Montevideo..	261
Do Rivers	30	1,291
Sales by private account....	3,795	29,558
Public sales	—
Transit	360	4,457
Stock to-day ..		25,101

The third Series of Colonial wool sales closed in London on the 7th inst. The attendance of buyers has remained large throughout and the close took place amidst general animation; prices ruling firm at the parity of those current at the opening.

From Havre a steady business is reported at the prices established at the late auctions held in that city.

Sheepskins—
Business is fairly active. Supplies are small and prices well supported.

Sales, 43 bales.

Stock only 170 bales.

At the public sales held in Liverpool on the 12th inst. there were offered 366 bales whereof 276 bales sold. There was a fair attendance and competition at an advance of about ¼d per lb. on August rates.

Hides—
There has been a brisk movement in this article at about the rates previously current though in some instances slight concessions have been made. As is unusually the case at this period of the year various parcels which have turned red in store are somewhat pressed for sale and for such from fr.1 to 2 lower bids have been and would still be accepted, whereas well conditioned hides fully keep their own. We mention the successive realisation which took place within the course of a few days of 6,285 Paysandu, 25-32 kilos, short haired, but red at fr.75.

From Havre too the news is satisfactory whilst from England a very slow tendency is reported, buyers in that country holding back, apparently in hopes of a decline taking place shortly.

The following parcel was sold to arrive:—
3,416 Uruguay saladero Liebig cows, 48.78 lbs., per Embiyn at f.75 for heavy and fr.65 for light.

In England no floating sales took place during this last fortnight.

Tallow—
The market has nominally remained unchanged, no business being reported though prices favour the buyer. Stock is nil. Beef is offered to arrive at fr 105, and might be secured at a shade less. In mutton there is nothing offering.

From England no change is reported, the last price paid for beef in that market being 46s.

STATE OF IRELAND.

Mr John Rea, secretary of the Charleville Land League, and Mr D H O'Connor Draper, a member of the executive of the same league, were arrested to-day under the Coercion Act on the charge of intimidation and lodged in Clonmel Gaol. Yesterday the police called for Mr Rea, who was from home, but the prisoner, hearing of the visit of the police, came into Charleville this morning and gave himself up at the police barrack. A crowd of some hundred people, headed by the Rev Mr Beechinor, P.P., accompanied Mr Rea from his home to the police barrack. They cheered for the Land League, and after Mr Rea had been arrested they quietly dispersed on the advice of the priest.

A public meeting, under the auspices of the Land League, was to have taken place to-day at Whitechurch, but it was proclaimed, and no attempt was made to persevere. There were 100 policemen and 100 soldiers on the spot.

A public meeting, which was not proclaimed, took place to-day at Ahabullag, near Coachford. The Rev. Mr O'Regan, of Coachford, presided. Banners were paraded bearing the motto of 'No Rent', and resolutions were passed pledging those present to pay no rent until the suspects were released. The meeting was most enthusiastic, and cheers were given for the suspects in Kilmainham, while groans and hooting were indulged in against the 'Hypocrite Gladstone' and 'Buckshot Forster.' The police appeared to have been ignorant of the meeting, and in consequence no steps were taken to prohibit it.

At Mallow, on Saturday, a number of persons were charged with the riot on Saturday, the 15th, when Mr Heffernan, the suspect, was passing through. Eleven were returned for trial to the Mallow Quarter Sessions, nine being admitted to bail. Timothy Donovan, Michael Hanlon, Daniel Long, and Michael Looney were charged with being concerned in the attack upon the house of a pensioner named O'Keeffe. It was proved that a number of men attacked the house, fired shots into the place, smashed the windows, and forced the door. Mrs O'Keeffe, wife of the pensioner, stated she was not certain as to her identification of the parties, though it was on her original information they were arrested. Mr Rice, Crown prosecutor, asked for an adjournment of the cases, as the Crown were completely taken by surprise by this evidence. The magistrate, in refusing the application, said this conduct was only an evidence of the shocking state of things in the country. It was evident the witness had been tampered with, and that through intimidation she was afraid to identify the parties. A young lad was fined 20s. for throwing a stone at a soldier. In consequence of the excitement, it was deemed expedient to draft into the town a company of the 31st Regiment, and during the proceedings on Saturday a force of military was drawn up in front of the Courthouse.

A Land League meeting, announced to take place at Kingwilliamstown to-day, was proclaimed. One hundred men of the 80th Regiment left Tralee this morning for the purpose of proceeding to that place. The engine of the train broke down, a delay of over two hours occurred before the journey was resumed, and it must have been nearly 4 o'clock before the force reached its destination having had to tramp nearly a distance of 12 miles after reaching Castleisland.

At the Killarney Land League on Saturday, the headconstable, with a force of police, entered the room and told the assembled Leaguers that they must leave. The members left, and proceeded to an hotel, where they appeared to be enjoying themselves over a pot of beer, when the head constable again appeared, and compelled them to leave.

Mr M'Carthy, R. M., at Limerick, obliged the Limerick Land Leaguers to leave their rooms on Saturday, although they pleaded they were only taking a smoke. Other meetings of the Land League were suppressed.

At the Midleton Board of Guardians on Saturday, a resolution in favour of home government was adjourned.

At a meeting of the Mountrath branch of the Land League, held on the 21st., the Rev. W. Byrne in the chair, the following resolutions were passed almost unanimously:—

"1. We decline the responsibility of recommending the tenants of this branch to adopt the manifesto lately issued by the executive of the Central League, in which the principle 'pay no rent' was put forth.

"2. We recommend the tenants of the branch to offer their respective landlords what they and their neighbouring assessors consider a fair rent; in case this offer be refused, we recommend them to ask the Land Court to fix a fair rent for them.

"3. In case the rents fixed by the Land Court correspond with the rent fixed by the local assessors, or approximate closely to it, we recommend its acceptance. In case they be notably higher, we advise the rejection of the Land Act as useless, and then urge a contest with landlordism on the original lines of the Land League."

Mr GLADSTONE'S ILLNESS.

On inquiry at Hawarden Castle, yesterday afternoon, our correspondent was informed that Mr Gladstone was not quite so well, a renewal of the chill having been experienced. His throat is somewhat inflamed, and Mr Gladstone is now confined to his room. A medical man has not been called in, but it is decided, if Mr Gladstone's condition does not improve, to summon his medical adviser.

At six o'clock last evening, Mr Gladstone was no worse.

As at present arranged, Mr Gladstone will leave the castle on a visit to Lord Derby at Knowsley on the 26th inst.

On inquiry at Hawarden Castle at seven o'clock last evening, the Press Association correspondent was informed that the Prime Minister is suffering from a heavy cold of an ordinary character. He is confined to the house, but is able to transact business. He was better last evening. It is fully expected he will be able to visit Lord Derby at Knowsley on the 26th, but the deputation from the Farmers' Alliance is postponed. Mr Gladstone will return to town on the 6th or 7th of November.

Few people are surprised at Mr Gladstone's illness. His old recklessness became so marked during the Leeds meetings and up to his departure from London that many wondered he had so speedily forgotten the lessons of last winter. At Leeds his voice broke down, yet when he passed through the crowded streets a little before midnight his hat was in his hand all along the route. In London, again, where his buoyancy seemed quite restored, he was at no pains to shelter himself from the most inclement winds that ever blew in October. And as soon as he reaches Hawarden he is felling trees in his woods. Felling trees is not fit amusement for men of 72—at least not for Premiers. It needed all the influence of the Cabinet to restrain his passion for work when he was recovering from his serious illness in the spring, and one can only regret the Premier's colleagues did not exact some pledge from him before he commenced enjoying the vacation.

ELBIANA.

(Concluded.)

To the Editor of the Standard.

Sir,

This has'nt much to do with our voyage; but a recollection was borne forcibly in on my mind that evening. As I have said, it is a well bred audience that does not express an unfavourable comment for itself. If you want to hear genuine hearty, unbiassed criticism, freely and frankly expressed, go down to some East End or transpontine theatre in London, putting a little cotton wool in one ear, in case the Saxon idiom should become too vigorous at any moment for your refined susceptibilities.

Long years ago, a certain play was produced at a certain London theatre. It is not necessary to specify the particular temple of the drama thus distinguished; it still exists, though under another name. Suffice it to say, it was 'not' the Lane nor the Garden, nor any of the modern 'drawing-room houses' about the Strand. As for the play, its very title has long since passed into the limbo of forgotten things. What anxious days and sleepless nights passed over the author's head ere this, his first effort in dramatic composition, saw the footlights; what a vista he beheld down the future, as he stood proudly before the float and read his manuscript to the cast one ghastly November morning; what beer he stood to all hands. Anxiety and misgivings were certainly not ill-founded. The piece, originally a three-act comedy of a Shakespeareanly serious order, was cut down to the nature and limits of a farce; a wholly irrelevant low-comedy character was introduced, with much comic business 'apropos' of nothing; the heroine and all the female characters (including a real duchess) wore fancy ballet costumes; and the entire cast danced a break-down while speaking as much of the tag as they remembered—for no-one attempted to be letter-perfect, or did more than get a vague- y erroneous idea of the leading situations. Fines were unknown in a house where the treasury often succumbed to the demands made upon it for legitimate weekly salaries. The author was connected with one or two papers and journals at the time, and several people got into trouble with their editors for obeying the sacred dictates of friendship. The first night (how his heart beat when the curtain was rung up!) it was evident even to him that all was not going smoothly; dead silence was succeeded by a dropping fire of sarcastic comment, gradually swelling into an uproar which culminated in an ironic shriek of 'author!' as the baize came down. The awful yell with which he was greeted as he stepped on from the wing, and the appalling flowers of speech which flew up around will live in his memory for ever. The manager said it would be all right after a night or two, and pushed him on again next evening; there was no private box from which to bow his acknowledgements in comparative safety. He stood the orange-peel, nutshells, tightly crumpled play-bills and other spontaneous tributes of admiration from the front for a couple of nights, but after that they began to bring in eggs and dead cats with them, and he stayed away. The programmes were no dainty Rimmelesque leaflets, but honest yards of printed matter damp from the press, one of which, rolled hard, forms no insignificant promiscuous missile. On the sixth night, Saturday, a deputation of a few hundreds from the three-penny gallery went round like one man to the stage-door; the actors and actresses barely escaped with their lives, and the piece was finally and irrevocably damned; while, next Tuesday, thirty shillings, about one-tenth of what it had cost him in cab-fares to reach the place, six crowns, being the meed of this, his first venture, in consideration of its one week's run, was paid over to the pilgrim in that thorny by-way of literature. Who now, under a guilty sense of having trespassed far too heavily on your space, has the honour to subscribe himself your obedient servant

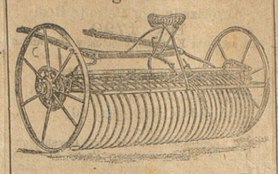
HOWARD'S CELEBRATED MACHINES

Howards' Self-Acting Horse Rakes.



The above were the first Self acting Horse Rakes which secured public favour, and owing to their extraordinary success various attempts have been made to imitate them, but J. & F. HOWARD'S simple brake principle—Patented—is so instantaneous in action, that all the contrivances introduced by others for effecting the same object are in comparison but complicated expedients.

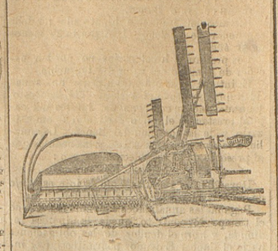
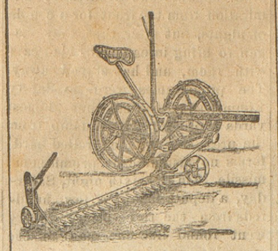
Howard's New Patent Simplex Mower.



J. & F. HOWARD'S Simplex Mower is one of the lightest machines ever produced. It is from its construction remarkably strong, and has been found to be capable not only of cutting the heaviest crops, but of standing the roughest usage. J. & F. HOWARD'S patented principle of open gearing is adopted. This gearing, among other advantages, is light in weight, of great strength, and not liable, as other gearing, to get clogged with the cut grass, there being no cogs to catch it, and no shield therefore is required.

With two Knives, Spring Seat, and Tool Box, containing all requisites for use in the field, weight 6 cwt.....

Howard's New Patent Simplex Reaper.



J. & F. HOWARD'S Simplex Reaper is in every way constructed to meet the demand for a light, but strong Reaper. It has a large travelling wheel, and having the fewest possible wearing parts, its value, especially where repairs are difficult to execute, can hardly be overstated. The experience of several harvests with large numbers of these Machines, both at home and abroad, and the distinguished place they have obtained in public trial fields, have fully demonstrated their superiority.

With two Knives, Seat and Tool Box, containing all requisites for use in the field, weight 10½ cwt .....

The above Machines kept in Stock by the Principal Hardware Merchants.

AS SURE AS EGGS ARE EGGS.—An American Editor declares that out West eggs are fetching two-pence each, and that the hens do not care about business even at this price. We fancy this must be very far 'West,' or surely our American cousins would ere this have resorted to the use of 'Borwick's Gold Medal Custard Powder,' which renders the housewife perfectly independent of the domestic fowl, since it produces the most delicious custards, blanc-manges, &c., at half the usual cost, and in much less time. The hens had better be 'cautious about striking,' or some enterprising storekeeper will introduce this household boon, and ruin their trade for ever. There is no special 'laying season' for 'Borwick's Custard Powder,'—one can keep it always on hand in the neat little packets and tins in which it is sold. Can be had of all Storekeepers in the Colonies.—Civilian.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

—o—

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 13th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvelous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diphtheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Lumbago, &c.

—o—

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are not of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
